

KALEIDOSCOPE

Demonstrations of skill and precision. These displays show the standard of training, and the team spirit, that are maintained throughout the Army of to-day, the value of which was demonstrated so clearly in the World War 1939-45.

ROYAL ELECTRICAL AND MECHANICAL ENGINEERS.

The assembly of a jeep - from packing case to road worthy vehicle in approximately five minutes !

307 Line of Communication Workshops REME.
Station Workshops REME FAYID.

ROYAL REGIMENT OF ARTILLERY

"The Right of the Line"

FANFARE by the Trumpeters of the Royal Horse Artillery.
Display of Horse drawn Field Artillery Gun, Drill by the 1st Regiment Royal Horse Artillery.

"Modern Gun Drill"

Mechanised Field Artillery display by 41st Field Regiment Royal Artillery.

"Anti-Aircraft Gun Drill"

A Display showing two self propelled 40 mm Bofors Guns being brought into action and engaging a low flying aircraft, by 80th Light Anti-Aircraft Regiment Royal Artillery.

Simultaneously with the above display, four 3.7 inches Heavy Anti-Aircraft Guns of 71st Heavy Anti-Aircraft Regiment Royal Artillery, situated one in each corner of the Arena, will go into action against high flying aircraft.

BLANK ROUNDS will be fired during each display presented by The Royal Regiment of Artillery.

SPECTATORS should be prepared for the EXPLOSIONS.

MUSIC

The Royal Electrical and Mechanical Engineers' March.

Incidental : "The Planets"

Royal Horse Artillery Fanfare.

1st RHA Entry : "Keelrow"

Incidental : "Alamein Concerto"

41st Field Regiment Entry : "Bonnie Dundee"

Incidental : "Alamein Concerto"

80th LAA Regiment Entry : "British Grenadiers"

Incidental : Excerpt from "The London Fantasia"