

page 2

Wednesday 19th: Fatigue at trenches
Thursday 20th Trenches 11 pm.
Friday 21st Trenches
Saturday 22nd Trenches
Sunday 23rd. Trenches. Great Battle of Ypres
Monday 24th. Trenches 2 Battle of Ypres. Gas from Ypres
Tuesday 25th Rest
Wednesday 26th Rest
Thursday 27th Rest
Friday 28th Rest Battalion returned to trench . rifle brigade in for instruction 19 today
Saturday 29th. Went to Neuve Eglise for eye test Sunday 30th. Went to trenches G2 foremost part of battle line 25 yards from Germans
Monday 31st Trenches - on duty at listening hole 20 yards off Germans

June 1915

Tuesday 1st Trenches same as Monday. Mr Ellwood killed just by my side.
Last man he spoke to Wednesday 2nd. Gave the Germans hell 250 rounds relieved by 5 Leicesters.

went home by way of Kemmell

Thursday 3rd. Arrived back at huts Firing party for Mr.Ellwood's funeral Friday 4th (three lines of writing crossed out which said - rest firing party for Mr.Ellwood's
funeral - probably entered by mistake as this took place the previous day) communicating trench digging. Col. Jessop killed

Saturday 5th Went to hospital Bailleul sent to 4 gen hos at Arc outside St. Omer Sunday 6th. At rest camp Arc
Monday 7th At rest camp Arc
Tuesday 8th At rest camp great storm (afternoon sent on to base Boulogne
Wednesday 9th Left St.Omer and passed Bolougne
Thursday 10th Arrived Rouen hospital
Friday 11th Discharged Rouen hospital for north midland base Rouen
Saturday 12th Base
Sunday 13th Base
Monday 14th Base
Tuesday 15th Base
Wednesday 16th Base
Thursday 17th Base
Friday 18th Base
Saturday 19th Base
Sunday 20th Base
Monday 21st Base
Tuesday 22nd Base
Wednesday 23rd. Base

(no more entries until 2nd.July)

July 1915

Friday 2nd to Saturday 17th July Base.